Reciprocal Access List for Fordham Students

Fordham students in the online learning programs enjoy access privileges at a number of university, college and institutional libraries throughout the country, with the presentation of your Fordham University digital ID.

Our reciprocal access partners are members of the same library consortia as the Fordham University Libraries, or have one-on-one institutional agreements with Fordham, and our students are offered on-site access to the libraries listed below.

Please contact the library you are interested in using to determine the access policies and/or restrictions before visiting in person. Please note that some of our reciprocal access partners may have visitor restrictions during certain hours of the day or during certain periods of the year.
